IMMANUEL LUTHERAN ANNUAL MEETING MINUTES

Minutes Pending Approval

January 27, 2019

Martin Bernau called the meeting to order. Pastor Randall Baldwin read the message insert from Bishop Eaton, followed by the Litany.

Pastor Randy summarized his annual report, which centered around the idea of “change”. Our parish has undergone many changes over the decades with the addition and departure of various pastors and individual churches. We will continue to adapt as the world around us evolves.

The 2018 annual meeting minutes were unavailable at the time of this meeting.

Martin read the annual treasurer’s report and the 2019 budget. After all questions were answered, Homer Peterson moved, Duane Harmon seconded, and the congregation approved the 2019 budget.

Martin read the annual treasurer's report and the 2019 budget. After all questions were answered, Homer Peterson moved, Duane Harmon seconded, and the congregation approved the 2019 budget.

Unfinished Business: Replacement of the current boilers will not take place until 2020 because Larson's Plumbing and Heating has too many commitments in 2019. Homer Peterson has been performing maintenance on the current boilers to keep them in operating condition.

The roof of the bell tower was repaired. Leaks in several areas of the church were also fixed.

A grant was received for new carpet upstairs and it will be installed soon.

New Business: Ellyn Harmon requested volunteers to prepare and serve meals for the KC Kids on Wednesday evenings. She mentioned that the teachers also need a television. Interested individuals should call her.

Nominations: Martin Bernau was the only candidate for Church Council. Homer Peterson moved, Deb Nordskog seconded, and Martin was unanimously elected by the congregation.

The 2019 Annual meeting was adjourned with a table prayer by Pastor Randy before the noon meal.

Respectfully Submitted,

David Heimendinger

Immanuel Lutheran Church Secretary
