Dayspring Children's Village – Katuta news!

May 2019

Greetings from Dayspring

I see despite my personal goal of getting a newsletter out each term this year, I have already failed! I am sorry for that.

First term was crazy. We now have 86 children and most of them are in Gr 1-3. Lots of new little ones means lots of loving discipline, reminding of rules and consequences and... We have finally begun to settle in as we are midway through Term2. Dayspring is truly bursting at the seams at the moment

We have been trusting God for over 4 years to help us get a Rotary International grant released to us to build two toilet blocks and a new sewage tank. I have really had to strive with this funding. Between finding town planners, landscape architects, environmental companies and architects to help us, deal with our neighbour's objection to our development, and incredible delays at our municipality, I have been overly frustrated on numerous occasions. A number of times Rotary said they needed to pull the funding and I cried out to Jesus for intervention and things began happening in our favour. We are in the final stages of waiting for our municipality to approve our building plans and I literally run from building to building trying to see which department has our plans and if there is anything I can do to get them approved and moving! I finally tracked the building plan file to a department where there were stuck for over 3 months earlier this year. That department says they need a document from our appointed municipality town planner and the town planner says he has already given him the document months ago!! Now I need to see if the municipal manager can intervene. The Rotary told me on Monday that they were ready to cancel our $120 000 grant!! Again because of it taking too long. I am so incredibly battling this in the spiritual and physical realm.

Management made a decision to really trust God for our staff unity. It had taken some serious hits over the years and it was affecting everything including the kids. As God has begun giving us strategy in how to rebuild unity, we have stepped out in faith and seen miraculous results. We have a couple of new teachers this year which has also been a massive blessing. We called each staff at the beginning of the term to praise their efforts, speak life over them and pray for them. It was outstanding. We have had some fun crazy dress up days that made the children nearly split their sides with laughter and brought greater unity between the staff and kids.

Buyane, who was an orphan that we have raised since he was 6, has given his year to help us. He has been an incredible blessing and asset to us. His passion for Jesus is infectious with the kids and he runs the church, weekly fasting and devotion time. He has planned a Bible camp in June and is doing all the fundraising, organising and activity planning. We are so excited to see what Jesus is doing in and through him this year.

We felt God lay on our heart to trust for finances to take our staff on a team building trip to the sea. Most of our staff have never been on a vacation as we sadly can't afford to pay them enough to cover such luxuries. Most all of them also look after extended family members so any 'spare' cash goes to help their family. God has opened an accommodation for us that is ridiculously cheap as they are repairing their elevators this year. We are planning to go in mid Sept. during our 3rd term holiday. The staff is super excited about this adventure and we are doing all sorts of fun and crazy things to raise support for that outing.

The Thursday before our long Easter weekend break, Elijah and I had gone to my 6 month kidney Dr check-up. He found no regrowth in my abdomen; Praise God and my single kidney was functioning well. On our way home, with 2 other staff in the back, a car turned right in front of us. We had the right of way and assumed they would wait. We plowed into them shoving our front end up past the engine. We praise God both cars occupants only sustained minor injuries but our car was a write off.

I ended up lying on the side of the road waiting for the ambulance for nearly 2 hours! The seatbelt and airbag did their job but because I was so close to the dashboard it really impacted me. The x-rays and tests found no broken bones or internal injuries praise God. However, the bruising was extensive as well as a pulled/torn muscle in my rib/back area which God is healing but still aches a bit. How frustrating to be celebrating a good report from the kidney Dr a couple of minutes earlier and then end up back in ER and having to spend the night in the hospital again! The enemy of God is really hating us at the moment so we can only deduce we are doing something right for the Kingdom of God. Our insurance paid out in
